

DISCUSSION ON OPERATION SINDOOR IN RAJYA SABHA

No third-party intervention behind ceasefire: Jaishankar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, July 30

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER Jaishankar asserted on Wednesday that there was no third-party intervention in ensuring a ceasefire between India and Pakistan during Operation Sindoor, making it clear that it was not linked to trade as claimed by US President Donald Trump. Intervening in the special discussion on Operation Sindoor and Pahalgam terror attack in the Rajya Sabha, Jaishankar castigated the Congress over its government's apathetic response to the incident of Pakistan-sponsored terrorism.

External affairs minister S Jaishankar speaks in the Rajya Sabha during the monsoon session of Parliament on Wednesday

During his speech, he referred to the previous Congress-led UPA government's "inaction" in the wake of the 26/11 Mumbai terror attack, saying "there is a Congress normal... and a Modi normal". "There is a Congress normal, which I spoke about, and there is a Modi normal... The Modi normal in terrorists are not the government, asking it to connect with terrorism will get an appropriate response in our way, at our time. Three, talks and there will not go together. If there are talks, it will only be about terror. Number four, we will not give in to nuclear blackmail. And number five, terrorism and good neighbourliness cannot go together," he said.

The Opposition MPs kept their guns trained on the government, asking it to connect with President Trump's claims of brokering a ceasefire between India and Pakistan. Apart from Jaishankar, Leader of the House

JPNadta, the BJP president, also slammed the Congress for its "apposment" of Pakistan.

Taking on the Opposition, Jaishankar said, "Kaan bandh ke sun hain (listen carefully), April 22 to June 16 tab ek hi phone call President (Donald) Trump and Prime Minister (Narendra) Modi ke beech mein nahai hui. (PM Modi and President Trump did not have any phone calls between April 22, when the Pahalgam attack took place, and June 16)," he said.

He took a jibe at Congress leaders Rahul Gandhi and Jairam Ramesh as "China guns", who took "privatizations" from Chinese diplomats. The Congress recently questioned Jaishankar's visit to China, while Gandhi flagged a "two-front challenge" from China and Pakistan while attacking the Modi government.
